INSTRUCTIONS

A. Answer any TWO (2) Questions

B. Write a question down in full, and as given (i.e. do not paraphrase), and, then, proceed to answer it.

1. What were the differences between the nature of relations that existed between European societies and African societies during mercantilism, on the one hand, and under capitalist trade, on the other?

2. The dispute that led to the First World War was basically between Austria-Hungary and Bosnia. How did it come about that, in History, dominant belligerents appear as Britain and Germany?

3. The League of Nations was established for purposes, mainly, of ensuring nations of the world would not go to war again. In your view, why could it not stop outbreak of World War II?

4. Why is the term 'revolution' applied to change that took place in Russia in October, 1917?

5. Why was fascism attractive to different social groups in Italy, Germany and across Europe after the First World War?

6. In what ways did the Cold War influence governance and politics in Africa, until the early 1990s?
