

Question 1

Discuss Erik Erikson's first two stages of development focusing on how primary caregivers can help minimize the advent of aggressive behavior during childhood and adolescence

Question 2

Explore how the interaction of child temperament and parenting style can lead to child aggressive behavior.

Question 3

Discuss the factors that increase the risk of violent behavior in adolescence and what social workers can do in the helping process.

Question 4

Explore how the following can perpetuate or minimize aggressive behaviors in adolescents and children:

- a. Antisocial parent attitudes
- b. Parental supervision
- c. Peers
- d. Neighborhoods

Question 5

Discuss how as a social worker you can use the systems theory to resolve the aggressive behavior of an adolescent.

Question 6

Discuss how and why aggressive behavior exhibits itself differently in teenage girls and boys.